Being nominated for an award

Being nominated for an award is a great achievement in itself – so congratulations! The person nominating you thinks you deserve recognition for your achievements and that your story could inspire others.

These are the answers to some frequently asked questions from tutor nominees.

What is the process for being nominated?

Your nominator will need to complete a nomination form which tells us a bit about you, your contribution to adult learning and the impact you have had on your learners. This nomination form will include some statements from you, telling us in your own words about your teaching. (More information about your statements is below.) Your nomination will also need to include a statement from one or more of your learners about why they think you deserve an award.

Once the nomination form has been completed, your nominator will submit it to the Festival of Learning team. The final deadline for this is Tuesday 1 February 2021. All nominations are then reviewed and winners for a range of awards are selected.

What do I need to write about in my statements?

The nomination form for tutors asks for three statements from you, the nominee:

Part A: (up to 150 words) Please tell us about your teaching including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• What you teach, where, and how often.• Who your learners are.
Part B: (up to 200 words) Please tell us about why you teach e.g.: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Why you were inspired to teach?• What motivates you as a tutor?
Part C: (up to 300 words) Please tell us about the difference that your teaching has made. This might include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• How your teaching has made a positive difference to the learners you work with.• How your teaching has made a difference to the community or had a wider social impact.• How your role and your approach has made a difference in your organisation, or to colleagues.
Part D: (up to 200 words) Please tell us about your own learning journey. What do you do for your own professional development as a tutor?
